

Welcome to my place...

This web site is mainly for family and friends to keep up with what I am doing and places I have been. Please visit my gallery for all my photos, and if you want to chat on-line please login. To login you must first get a user name and password from me by sending an email to me@robbie-wright.com This email address is being protected from spam bots, you need Javascript enabled to view it .

My blog page (weblog) is a historical list of my thoughts ramblings and events in my life so far, so please do not take the content too seriously. Also I have included some links to my favourite web sites that I like to visit (under the LINKS menu).

Finally my site's content is purely personal so you can't copy or reuse the information without my permission. I also do not take any responsibility for the accuracy of any of the content on this site, and vistors who use information from my web site pages, do so at their own risk.

I am looking forward to hearing from you... Robbie
